British Pædiatric Association

Rules,

Officers of the Association,

List of Members.

The British Pædiatric Association

RULES

1.—The Association shall be called the British Pædiatric Association.

Its objects shall be the advancement of the study of Pædiatrics and the promotion of friendship among Pædiatricians.

2.—It shall consist of Ordinary Members and Honorary Members and Corresponding Members. It shall contain not more than 65 Ordinary Members, who shall be Physicians actively engaged in the Practice or Teaching of Pædiatrics, or in Pædiatric Research.

3.—The business of the Association shall be conducted by an Executive Committee, consisting of a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and six Ordinary Members.

All these Officers shall be elected at an Annual General Meeting.

4.—The President shall hold office for one year. The Treasurer and Secretary shall be elected annually, but shall be eligible for re-election. These three officers shall be ex-officio Members of the Committee.

The six Ordinary Members shall hold office for three years. Two shall retire annually and shall not be eligible for re-election until after the lapse of three years.

Note.—Of those elected at the first General Meeting, two shall retire at the end of one year, and two at the end of two years.

Should other vacancies occur on the Committee, Members shall be elected at the next General Meeting to complete the term of office of the retiring Members.

No candidate may be proposed for election to these offices unless his name, duly proposed and seconded, has been sent to the Secretary at least three weeks before the Annual Meeting.

5.—Each division of the British Isles shall be adequately represented on the Committee. Four of the Members of the Committee shall be from England and Wales (two from London), one from Scotland and one from Ireland.

6.—Not more than two of the six Ordinary Members of Committee shall be resident in any one town.

7.—The Treasurer shall receive subscriptions, pay all bills, and present the accounts yearly to the Executive Committee and to the Central Meeting.

8.—The Secretary shall summon all Meetings, and shall keep brief Minutes of the proceedings. He shall send, not less than one week before the General Meeting, to each Member of the Association a list of candidates for the various offices, balloting papers, and agenda papers as may be requisite.

9.—The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the arrangements of the General Meeting, and shall meet at such times as may be convenient. Four shall form a quorum.

It shall be part of its duties to consider the names of all candidates proposed for election to the Membership of the Association, and to nominate to the general body of Members, for election such candidates as it may consider desirable.

10.—A General Meeting shall be held once a year, at about Easter or Whitsuntide.

11.—General Meetings shall be held for the purposes of :—

(1) The election of Officers and Members of the Executive Committee.

(2) The election of New Members.

(3) The presentation of Accounts.

(4) The selection of the next place of meeting.

(5) Scientific business.

12.—New Members shall only be elected at the Annual General Meeting on the nomination of the Executive Committee.

Any Member of the Association may, by letter to the Secretary, not less than one month before the General Meeting, propose the name of a candidate, and shall at the same time state the grounds of recommendation of such candidate. The Secretary shall submit the proposal to the Executive Committee, who shall decide upon the nomination of the candidate.

Distinguished Pædiatricians, who are resident outside the British Isles and the Free State, may be elected "Corresponding Members" on the Nomination of the Executive Committee. (The members elected shall not exceed 10 in 1934/35 and two in each subsequent year.

The list of candidates so nominated shall be sent by the Secretary, not less than one week before the General Meeting, to each Member of the Association, who shall record his votes, and shall return the paper to the Secretary before the General Meeting. Scrutineers shall be appointed by the General Council to count the votes, and the result shall be announced to the Meeting. One adverse vote in five shall exclude, and to be elected, a candidate must obtain the support of one-fourth of those present.

The list of candidates proposed for election to the Executive Committee shall be similarly circulated for voting. The Election shall be conducted by ballot, and the result shall be announced to the General Meeting.

13.—Scientific communications shall be spoken, not read. No such communication shall last longer than 15 minutes except by leave of the Meeting. Members shall be at liberty to publish their communications when and where they please.

14.—No reporters shall be present and no report of the proceedings other than authorised by the Executive Committee shall be sent to journals or newspapers.

15.—Visitors may, by permission of the President, be introduced by Members. Their names shall be entered in a book provided for the purpose. They may make communications and take part in discussions, subject to the same rules as Members.

16.—The subscription of each Ordinary Member shall be One Pound a year.

Subscriptions shall be payable to the Treasurer on the First of June in each year.

A Member who is more than twelve months in arrear, and has been duly notified thereof, shall, unless immediate payment be made, cease, ipso facto, to be a Member of the Association.

17.—An Ordinary Member who is absent from three consecutive General Meetings shall cease, ipso facto, to be a Member of the Association.

18.—Notice of any proposal to amend or alter the existing rules, or to pass new rules, must be sent to the Secretary not later than one month before the next ensuing General Meeting, and must appear on the Agenda of the said Meeting in the form of a motion.
